Contents

Editorial
First papers from Gothenburg
Stephen Parker

Articles
Sustaining learning for LIS through use of a virtual world
Sheila Webber and Diane Nahl

Usability and compatibility of e-book readers in an academic environment: A collaborative study
Mari Aaltonen, Petri Mannonen, Saija Nieminen and Marko Nieminen

Keeping the information profession up to date: Are compulsory schemes the answer?
Judith Broady-Preston and Amanda Cossham

Integrating diversity across the LIS curriculum: An exploratory study of instructors’ perceptions and practices online
Bharat Mehra, Hope A. Olson and Suzana Ahmad

Parliamentary library and research services in the 21st century: A Delphi study
Roxanne Missingham

Uniting information literacy promotion and reader development in schools: Two forms of library-based intervention
Andrew K. Shenton

Collection development for immigrants – what to purchase, and why? Findings in Gothenburg, Sweden
Ingrid Atlestad, Ann-Christine Brunnström and Randi Myhre

News

International calendar

Abstracts